

The PCG Difference

At PCG, we exist to serve your unique needs when you have reached the pinnacle of your career, and are in need of tailored, well thought-out advice. When you reach the top tier, cookie cutter approaches simply don't work. You need a team of advisors who understands the complexities, nuances and rules governing the accumulation and protection of your wealth. PCG is that firm.

First and foremost, our focus is to work together with you to create the best possible plan of action to ensure financial, professional and personal security. Typically the accountant, insurance specialists, financial advisor and attorney are at odds over the individuals planning, with financial gain guiding their recommendations and with no communication or strategy between them.

In contrast, we assure your team of advisors has a client centered focus, working together to maximize the same dollar, rather than conflicting over it. We coordinate quarterly meetings with your team of advisors to make sure your actions are aligned with your goals and objectives.

PCG KEEPS YOUR TEAM ON THE SAME PAGE.
